

College of Chiropractors of British Columbia 2011 Board Election Results

For Immediate Release

(RICHMOND, B.C., 12 October 2011) – The College of Chiropractors of British Columbia (CCBC) congratulates all newly elected board members and extends their appreciation to former members for their contributions.

The College would like to recognize Dr. Brad Dickson, former CCBC Chair who concluded his term with the board in September. Dr. Dickson's contributions have been invaluable, with time served on both College and Association boards.

New leaders take the helm for the college with Dr. David Olson appointed as Chair and Dr. Shannon Patterson appointed as Vice-Chair. Newly elected Dr. Enrique Domingo joins the CCBC board as member.

Going forward with new leadership, the CCBC board remains dedicated to ensuring the delivery of quality health care for all British Columbians.
